

Infrastructure Diagram

Frontend installed on a AWS Bucket receives User login, registration, and post data. It sends this information to Elastic Beanstalk.

Elastic Beanstalk API queries the AWS RDS PostgreSQL Database using data from the frontend.

AWS Elastic Beanstalk sends post data to the AWS S3 bucket; which allows the frontend to display data to the user.

Infrastructure Diagram

AWS RDS PostgreSQL database stores data from the User and sends query results back to Elastic Beanstalk API.

